

Matthew Boyer

July 5, 1994 - September 6, 2024

Matthew David Evans Boyer died on September 6, 2024 as a result of injuries sustained in a car accident.

Matthew (Matt) was born on July 5, 1994 to David and Maggie Boyer in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. He was married to Beverly Saldivar on March 25, 2016. They originally made their home in Tulsa, but moved to Bartlesville in 2018. They have three sons, Eli, Nicholas, and James. A fourth son, Henry, is due to arrive in December.

Matthew was a teacher at Saints Peter and Paul Catholic School in Tulsa. It was his calling, one in which he invested his heart and soul. He loved the school, the faculty, staff, and especially his students.

Prior to working at Saints Peter and Paul school, Matthew was a fire fighter. Most recently, he served as the Assistant Fire Chief in Collinsville, Oklahoma. But he felt the Lord calling him to an entirely different vocation and he answered the call.

Matthew was loud, bossy, opinionated, passionate, fun, kind, loving, empathetic and compassionate. He managed to combine all those traits into one very remarkable man. He loved his wife and boys and was committed to being a good husband and father. Beverly was his anchor, as he said many times...he needed her. Above all, he loved Christ and the Catholic Church. He came into full communion with the Catholic Church in February of this year. It was not a decision he made lightly. After years of prayer and study, he was confirmed on February 10, 2024. Again, it was an answer to the Lord's call.

He leaves behind his wife, Beverly. His four sons, Eli, Nicholas, James, and Henry. Also surviving Matthew are his parents, David and Maggie Boyer, his sister, Lindsey Beukelman and husband Stephen, his nephew Titus and niece Isla. He is also survived by his Grandmother, Jo Ann Boyer. He loved Beverly's family as much as his own, Parents-in-law, Angel and Socorro Saldivar, Eric Saldivar, Giselle (Matt) Foster , Alex (Kira) Saldivar, and Andy Saldivar. In addition, Matthew leaves uncles, aunts, cousins, and countless friends who grieve his loss.

Matthew's cousin, Jared Jagers said "If there is anyone in this world who didn't love Matt, I never want to meet them".

A Rosary will be prayed Friday, September 13 at 8:00 PM at Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church. A Latin Requiem Mass will be celebrated for Matthew on Saturday, September 14, 10:00 AM at Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church, 1436 N 67th East Avenue, Tulsa OK 74115. Services are under the direction of Stumpff Funeral Home. No visitation will be held, but a register book will be available for people to sign in Bartlesville at Stumpff Funeral Home.

“ I hadn't seen or talked to Matt in many years, but I vividly remember how kind and funny he was. He was genuinely a light in this world and it was a privilege to know him. My heart goes out to his friends and family.

“ Well said, Jared (also a delightful fellow). I have struggled to put in words who he is. A lot of the stuff that is true (he always captured/lit up a room and had everyone rolling laughing) sounds trite.

He was a lovable goofball with an awesome, infectious (and impossible to describe) laugh but when you wanted to talk about hard things with him, his compassion was evident and he was a good listener. A good talker and good listener both...which is definitely not very common, in my experience. He definitely did not have a poker face and I loved that about him. He really was a joy to be around.

As I've thought thru memories of him, his childhood food issues came to mind and I laughed at how he wouldn't eat anything but (at least in my memory) mac n' cheese or PB&J as a kid. He was such a little turd about food and grew up to be a very healthy eater and not remotely a turd. LOL

I definitely hope his boys are like him but, for Beverly's sake, I hope they don't inherit that short-lived picky eating.

He seemed to completely revel in being a dad. He always seemed so in love with and proud of Beverly and his boys.

I hope as a family we can all help them remember him thru our eyes if not their own memories.

I wish I hadn't outlived you, Matt, but you'll always be in my heart and memories.

“ Matthew and I share the same birthday, just many years apart. He was impetuous, fun-loving, spontaneous, and zealous. He loved his beautiful bride, Beverly, and his precious boys. He was a hard worker and loyal friend. We had many in depth theological discussions and always appreciated honesty and clarity. He was always welcome in our home and in our heart. If Matthew loved you, he would show it in uninhibited ways. You would never doubt his love and you knew that he would love you through thick and thin forever. You will be missed until we meet again!
