“ Matt never let me pass him without asking me how I was. When I said I was fine and wasn't, he knew and he would give me a hug with encouraging words. I wish I could do the same for his family right now, but there are no words to make this loss better. We saw Matt grow from less than hip high, with bright happy eyes and many questions, to a polite hard-working & caring young man, my daughter fell more in love with. This is not the ending I saw and I would change it if there was a way. I am so sorry you are going through so much pain. If we can help, in any way humanly possible, please let us know! Love, Casey
