

Mrs. Maudine Hindman

September 28, 1938 - January 5, 2018

Cloy Maudine Hindman passed away peacefully in her home of 47 years in Childers on Friday, January 5, 2018, surrounded by family who loved her dearly. Maudine was born September 28, 1938 in Washington County, Oklahoma to Harold Buoy and Stella Johnson Buoy. She was raised and received her education in Oglesby, Oklahoma. She then met and married Joe Richard Hindman, who soon became a "Sr." after the birth of their first son, Joe Richard Hindman Jr., later to be called Punkin. More children were born, TaLona, Todd, Quent, Stevie, Rosonna, and Johnny, and by 1971 they permanently settled in the Childers area and the kids were educated in the Alluwe School Family.

After raising her family, Maudine put 13 years of blood, sweat, and tears into her work at Nowata Nursing Facility before she retired. It was her second home.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, her brothers Carl, Jim, Jack, and John and her sister Joyce, her son Quent, and her daughter TaLona. She leaves behind her brother Ron and wife Patsy Buoy, her brother Ben, her sister Mary Coleman, her children Joe Hindman Jr., Todd and Pam Hindman, Stevie Hindman and fiance Angie Kirby, Rosonna Ennis, and Johnny Hindman. She also accumulated 10 awesome grandkids and 10 great grandkids, lots of nieces and nephews, and still has lots of love for the entire Hindman family.

Her viewing is from 9-5 on Wednesday, January 10, 2018 at Stumpff in Nowata. Family will gather there from 4-5 p.m. All are welcome to come in and visit.

She will have a chapel service at Stumpff in Nowata on Thursday, January 11, 2018 at 11 a.m. with Dean Bridges officiating.
