“ My sincerest sympathy goes out to the friends and family of Max. It is such a difficult time to deal with. I didn't know him personally but, having lost someone dear to me, I can empathize with the pain you have and continue to experience. What comfort such scriptures as John 5:28,29 brought me! You will read there about the promise Jesus gave of resurrecting our loved ones back to life. When he resurrected His friend Lazarus back to life (John 11:38-44) He showed his ability and desire to fulfill that promise. Can you just imagine the joy Lazarus' sisters felt when they held him in thier arms once again? This joy we too will feel in the very near future. Until that day comes, we have the promise that God will draw close to those whose hearts have been broken (Psalms 34:18) I truly hope these few scriptures have helped lessen the pain you feel as they had mine.

“ *Dear Cook Family,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) While grief at the loss of your Father is great, joy at welcoming him back in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5;42) With deepest sympathy,*

“ No wonder I couldn't get him on SKYPE this week to share Christmas greetings. Max was one of the dearest men ever to share my life...indeed a "surrogate dad" in many ways. The time he shared with my mother near the end of her life was precious to her - and to me! I'll never forget you, Max!

“ I am sorry to hear about Max passing. There are alot of memories of the Cummings gang and all of the things we did in the old neighborhood. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family.
