“ Mike was a joy to work with and a real friend to county government. He was a fair reporter and his smile was always welcome at our weekly, County Commissioner Board meetings. Our community has lost a real asset in Mike. A good Christian man who possessed honor and a man who had the best interest of our community at heart. My deepest sympathy to his family.

“ I remember a time when Mike and I were teasing back and forth at the station and I smarted off, thinking I'd have the last word. I should have known with Mike's quick wit, that wouldn't be the case. We still laughed about that moment and I'll never forget that. Mike was fun to work with and I'll miss him. My thoughts and prayers are with you. May God comfort you during this time.
