“ If you knew Mike Stevens, you would be describing him as the person you knew as being , an extremely selfless human being. No doubt in my mind everyone came first before himself. He always treated me like family. About two months ago he was helping me do something, I was thanking him. He said well you are family and we help family! That’s who he was!!

Mike was always so sweet, kind, generous, grateful, selfless and a good hard working man every step of the way. Mike always sacrificed for his family and friends. We are all going to miss him so much. Please keep Phyllis and her family in your prayers. It’s so hard to accept he’s gone in such a short time. I will miss you answering the phone and saying HELLO in your own unique way.
