

Michael Wray Thompson

January 25, 1953 - January 31, 2023

Michael Wray Thompson, 70, of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, died on January 31, 2023. Mike was born on January 25, 1953 in Pittsburgh, Kansas.

Mike graduated from College High School in Bartlesville in 1971 and then received an Associate's Degree from Northern Oklahoma College. He worked in restaurant management throughout his lifetime.

Mike enjoyed hunting trips with his lifelong best friend, Joe, unannounced visits to local and out-of-town friends and family members, collecting coins and other memorabilia, talking about the weather, comparing gas prices, watching football games on tv (especially his beloved OU Sooners), laughing at his own jokes even when no one else would, telling stories we've already heard, and spending time with friends and family.

Mike was preceded in death by his parents, Kenneth Wray and Mary L. (Clark) Thompson and his brother, Donnie.

He is survived by his daughter Tanna, her wife, Angie, son, Bradley Wray, his wife Kathy, his sister-in-law, Tammy, sister Marilyn, her husband, Kim, brother Eugene, his wife Regaina, grandchildren Kyle, Jonathon, Hayden Wray, Elizabeth, Aubrey, and several nieces and nephews.

“ I remember many funny conversations with Mike , Uncle Mikey . My best memory though is when my daughter was little and would call him " BIG Dada!" We even made him a t shirt for Christmas with her picture with that printed on it . He will be missed by all of us . Love you Uncle Mikey!

“Dad always had hunting friends sleeping on the couch but Mike was a regular. Uncle Mike, as we called him, was at every early morning hunt with dad. Funniest memory is when he and dad bought the same gift for mom for Christmas 😂 Two peas in a pod him and dad. He even answered dads phone if he were there. I know we all already miss you Uncle Mike ❤️
