“ To the family of Michelle Sheridan- It has been an honor to be under supervision for such a graceful, problem solving, creative, and kind woman. We shared prayers in Macy, Nebraska. The sage I brought to the services came from the White Buffalo Calf Woman Society in Mission, South Dakota- Lance, not far from the Black Hills. My Wednesdays at 5:30 will be a time to reflect on the impact your mother and Jack, your lady friend, had not only on my life but on alllll the people she so diligently served. mitakuye oyasin. With Much Respect from me, Lottie, and Ryan.

“ My heart is broken for all of you... Lance, Dane, Jack, Monette and her girls. Michelle was a remarkable woman that I considered one of my dearest friends. She was a teacher and a mentor in my life. It was an honor to work side by side with her throughout the years. I will miss her more than words can express. Love to all of you.
