

Milagros Gelado

October 6, 1933 - October 26, 2024

Milagros Gelado was born on October 6, 1933. She was given the name Milagros which means 'miracle' because of a difficult birth for both mother and child. She was born and raised in Havana, Cuba to Alphonso and Clotilde Pajares and was the youngest of four siblings, Juanita, Julia and Alphonso. She was the apple of her father's eye and the princess of the family. While in Cuba, she finished her studies and met her husband, Cesar Gelado.

In 1957, the Gelado's came to the United States and raised their own family. After their children were grown, Millie and Cesar made their home in Fort Lauderdale, FL and then followed their son and daughter in law to Bartlesville.

In her younger days, Millie loved to dance and was very artistic. She was a quick study, learned the English language, became a US citizen and worked as an inspector of seismic equipment for Westinghouse after her children were grown and left home. She also loved frogs of which she had an expansive collection. And she loved dogs, especially her beloved and faithful companion, Princessa!

Millie passed peacefully in her sleep on October 26, at home with family. She is survived by her son, Richard Gelado and his wife, Sabrina of Bartlesville and her daughter, Roxanne Gelado of Charleston, South Carolina.
