“ *I remember Morgan from a very young age to the young lady she has become. I have pictures of her at our house in some birthday celebrations of my grandkids several years ago. Morgan always called me Grandma Dixie whenever I saw her. Unfortunately, over the past few years I've seen Morgan only on a few occasions. The last time I saw Morgan was a year ago this past March and she was vibrant and bouncing around with lots of energy. I have good memories of Morgan and it is such a loss to have her gone from this earth. I pray she had a peaceful transition from this earth to her heavenly home with God. Miss you, Morgan.. “Wow I still can't believe she is gone! I am so sorry for your lost guys! I love you all so much.

I wanted to say that I only knew Morgan for a short amount of time, but am thankful for the time I did get to know her! I hope all of her friends see this and follow with posting more pictures and memories they have with Morgan.

I have a couple of great memories with Morgan that I will never forget. Bonnie I don't know if you remember but one time Morgan had come over to give me something for you. My little Madison had this little green frog and the leg had fallen off right as Morgan had showed up. Well my little girl ran right up to Morgan with big tears in her eyes, and asked her "You fix my froggy?" Lol well my baby must have realized mom was no good at fixing things like that but Morgan would magically fix it for her, or something like that. Only god knows what my little girl was thinking when she ran up to her and asked Morgan to fix her froggy. Of course Morgan did know how to fix it and took it back to mom's house. A couple of days later she had come back with my daughters little froggy, it was fixed, and she had made my little girl the happiest girl in the world! My daughter still has that frog, she has an obsession for frogs. I hadn't thought of that in a while because my daughter just kept it on her bed, when I heard of her passing, my Madison pulled that froggy out and the girls played with it all day. I wanted to say so much be careful girls we won't be able to fix it, but it made me smile thinking of that story and seeing them play with him.

One more story just to make the Jessie family laugh, because I just can't keep it to myself and I want you all to remember that night. But do you remember when I was having problems with my husband and came to stay with you all. Well Morgan was staying at the house with Louie as well as Kimmy. The twins were still living at home. It was awesome that we were all together and you all had welcomed me into your home, just like we were family. I remember Louie and Morgan, as well as mom and dad, all trying to give me advice on what to do. We read passages from the bible, and talked so much about marriage. It was all great advice by the way. But anyways do you remember the big fight between Morgan and the twins. Smh, I do, and I laugh now thinking about it, even though it got a little dangerous. But dad had just gotten home and was getting ready in the truck when this fight broke out in the kitchen. Hahah, we all ended up in dad's truck that night! I mean everyone! Morgan, Kimmy, little Carl, Arthur, mom, and I. We ended up laughing so hard even though I think we were actually bothering dad. He was cool about it though and just let Morgan sit on his lap, while we all crammed into the truck.

Well I hope this makes you all laugh and think of her fondly. She was an crazy, fun person with an awesome personality. I will never forget her. RIP Morgan you are gone but your not forgotten!
