

Oliver Lee Andrews

November 24, 1925 - August 21, 2021

Oliver Lee Andrews -- Born November 24, 1925 Entered into eternal rest August 21, 2021

Oliver Lee Andrews was born on November 24, 1925 in Stuart, Oklahoma to James Wilbern Andrews and Sarah Alta Jane Andrews (Hull). His father was a cattleman and his mother was a homemaker. Oliver grew up in Stuart and in Holdenville, Oklahoma, one of three brothers (Norvin, Oliver, and Jimmy). He enlisted in the Army Air Force in World War II and was trained as a belly gunner on a B-24 heavy bomber at Harlingen, Texas. He was assigned to the 15th Army Air Force and sent to Naples, Italy. He flew in fifty combat missions over Europe from January 1944 through the end of the war in Europe. He was honorably discharged in October 1945. After returning home he worked as a roughneck in the oilfields of Oklahoma and Wyoming, then for the Sun Oil refinery in Tulsa. He married Frances Hendrix and they had three children, Janet, James and Beth. In 1964 Oliver married Darlene Andrews, to whom he was married until her passing in July of 2020. He also worked for Waner Corporation building pressure vessels and for Morrow-Gill Lumber Company. He retired in 1985. He was preceded in death by his parents, his brothers Norvin and Jimmy, his daughter Janet and his son James, and his wife Darlene. He is survived by his daughter Beth, his stepson Rick, and several grandchildren.
