

Patricia Jo Evans

May 7, 1934 - June 8, 2023

Patricia Jo "Pat" (Baker) Evans, of Bartlesville, passed away on June 8, 2023, at Heritage Villa surrounded by love from her family and friends. Patricia was born in Lindsey, Oklahoma on May 7, 1934.

Upon graduating from Wayne High School, she worked for the Bartlesville School district while her children attended school. After 10 years, she retired from Phillips 66 as a marketing clerk. Patricia was known for her love and compassion, providing a nurturing spirit and sense of security to all that crossed her path. She lived with patience and purpose, always looking for the best in others. Pat was a mother, grandmother, and friend to many, "family" knew no boundaries for her. Her favorite quote was "keep on grinnin' and don't let them know what you're thinking about." She always brought joy to those who encountered her. She was passionate about music, dancing, cooking, gardening, sewing, crochet, collecting, and so much more. She was a country girl at heart.

Patricia was preceded in death by her husband, George Evans; daughter, Betty Stahl; son, Danny Lewis; granddaughter, Jennifer Roberts; former husband and friend, Foy Lewis; father, Luther Baker; mother, Lorena Baker; brother, Reso Baker; and brother, Carl (Coke) Baker.

Patricia is survived by her sister, Jacque Jean; her daughters, Joleta Fisher, Sara Lewis, and Amy Lewis; her many beautiful grandchildren and great grandchildren; and many loving extended family members.

Family and friends of Patricia are invited to join in celebrating her life with a visitation at Stumpff Funeral Home on June 12th from 8:00-10:30 am.

Following the visitation, a graveside service will be held at Memorial Park Cemetery at 11:00 am. The family welcomes all expressions of condolences and memories shared with Patricia.
