

Patricia Michelle Hopkins

March 11, 1958 - May 3, 2022

Patricia (Shelley) M. Hopkins was born on March 11, 1958, to Joe and Sandra (Speaker) Andrews, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and was later adopted by Don Hopkins when he and Sandra married in 1961. Shelley passed away May 3, 2022, at Ascension St. John, Jane Phillips Hospital, in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, with loving friends by her side.

Shelley attended Bartlesville Public Schools, graduating from Sooner High School in 1976. After graduation, she attended the University of Oklahoma, where she became an avid OU Sooners football fan. She and her mother traveled down to Norman for years to be at as many home games as possible. When Shelley returned to Bartlesville, she became a bookkeeper for many companies including Bonham Trucking Company and later for Oakley Pontiac Buick, where she was employed for twenty-eight years until she retired in 2018.

Outside of her love of Oklahoma football, her other passion was her volunteer work with the Journey Home, in Bartlesville. Shelley's love for people could only be surpassed by the love she had for her many beloved dogs, which were like children to her. Shelley was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Bartlesville; her faith was one of the most important things in her life.

Shelley was preceded in death by Joe Andrews, and her mother Sandra Marie Speaker-Hopkins. She is survived by her brother, Ghent Hopkins, and wife Jil, of Enid, Oklahoma, her nephew, Cody Hopkins, and wife Sherbet, of Osaka

Japan, her nephew, Casey Hopkins, of Norman, Oklahoma, her nephew, Cameron Hopkins, of Jacksonville, Florida, and her niece Jenny Garner, of Weatherford, Oklahoma. She also leaves behind many close friends, including her best buddy Jace Williams.
