“ Pattie was an instant friend. Pattie and I went to Branson to check on a time share. We really shared our lives on that trip and she I became closer friends. We shared many shopping trips, lunch at work, Ireland (when I met Jane), Scotland, JPS, Vaneissa (a great decorator) Lori, Tasha and much more. Pattie loved Brian, Jane, Cody, Holly, and Hope to the moon and back. Pattie loved and cared for her mother Betty. I pray for comfort to the family and Greg and Michelle (Pattie's unrelated family). Pattie was special and will be missed. Heaven gets sweeter all the time, such a reunion that will be. Love and Prayers, Mary Jane

“ Pattie came to Bartlesville and joined our Payroll group with the acquisition of Burlington. She sat across from me and I thoroughly enjoyed listening to her Texas accent and her polite conversations with unhappy employees who were having a payroll issue. We were so happy to have her there to handle the Burlington employees. Her knowledge of them and their payroll practices were invaluable to our group. She jumped into JPS with her enthusiasm and helpfulness. We shared a birthday and just had the opportunity to do that a couple of weeks ago. She will be greatly missed and I am very grateful for the opportunity to be her friend and coworker. Praying for her Mom and family in their loss.
