

Patty Sue Wilson

December 24, 1961 - October 17, 2019

Patty Sue Wilson passed away on Oct 17, 2019, from a sudden illness at her home in Barnsdall. She was born on Dec 24, 1963, to parents Betty Summey Trammel and Herbert Trammel.

She grew up in Barnsdall and after graduating in 1980, she moved to Tulsa. Years later she would return to Barnsdall and to get training in Home Health when her Mother was diagnosed with heart disease; she would refer to this time caring for her Mom as “her greatest honor”.

While back at home in Barnsdall she married her soulmate, Blaine Wilson. Blaine and his boys, Blake and Tim, were her happily ever after. Patty was most happy taking care of her family; she was a tireless homemaker, an accomplished seamstress, a great cook, and always had 2 or 3 projects going.

She will be sorely missed by the family she loved so dearly – husband, Blaine Wilson of Barnsdall; and sons, Blake Wilson of Barnsdall and Tim Wilson of Denver, Colorado. Her sister, Rose Medina of Bartlesville; her brother and sister-in-law, Bill and Deana Trammel of Bartlesville; and her brother, Wayne Trammel of Bartlesville. Her mother-in-law, Rae Devonne Flowers of Barnsdall. Sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, Melanie and Bruce Dildine of Barnsdall; Monta and Leonard Fitzgerald of McAlester; LaJuana and Billy

Williams of Liberty Hills, Texas; and Nan Davidson of Sherman, Texas. Neices, Jessica and Joey Benningfield of Stillwater; and Jennifer Medina of Ponca City. Nephews, Steven and Jenica Medina of Bartlesville; Max Trammel of Bartlesville; Joey Dildine of Barnsdall; John Dildine of Barnsdall; Jason Fitzgerald of McAlester; and so many more.

She is preceded in death by her Mom and Dad; and grandparents who thought she hung the moon, Fred and Maud Summey.

“ So very sorry to hear about Patty. She was a great person and friend. I remember talking w/ her awhile back about when she would bring me home w/her during lunch on school days. Her mother Betty, was always so pleasant and willing to feed me too. It was great just to talked about simple times of growing up in small town Barnsdall and our mutual friends: Debbie Woolman, Diana Shelton, Earlene, Tammy Sears, Benny Clem and Deann Nave. I look back at our picture in Ms Allee’s Class and see these great big smiles knowing we had committed the ultimate “crime” which would later get us both in trouble by the look on Mrs Allee’s face. I pray for peace and comfort for her family during this difficult time. Fly high sweet friend to your heavenly home. Paula Greenwood Bowers

“ I have the greatest memories of Patty when we were growing up together. She was my childhood best friend and my co-conspirator in all kinds of mischief. She had a great spirit and the kindest heart. My heart goes out to her family.

“ Patty was such a sweet person!! I will always cherish and miss our heart to heart talks either over the phone or when she would come by and visit. She was always down to earth and had a loving heart. I'll see you again some day!

“ Patty was one special person. I got to be the big sister who taught her so many things, not realizing the day would come when she would do the same for me. As adults, many times she was my rock. I thank God for my sister and know that I will see her again. Until then, may God bless and keep her and the angels watch over her. Hug Mom and Steve for me Pat...
