“ My Aunt Polly was so much more than an aunt..she was also my dear friend, my mentor, a 2nd mother. She was the hardest working woman I have ever know, doing everything from plowing a field, roofing a house, painting, canning, or anything else that needed to be done, and especially COOKING wonderful meals and deserts. Our annual Thanksgiving gatherings at her and Albert's home were spectacular with as many as 70+ people at a time. We had great fun going to Mexico, flea markets, garage sales, the mall. I truly miss our Mexican Train games....she won moe times than anyone, I believe, at least when I was playing. I loved her with all my heart and will miss her for the rest of my life.

“ Anytime I hear the word "Thanksgiving," this wonderful lady comes to mind first thing. I so miss our Thanksgiving reunions. She made them special. I'm so thankful for her life, all she did for me and the entire family. She was always there for my mom and our family. She was a true blessing and will be missed dearly. We're praying for the family today. We've lost a gem. -- Steve Kroening

“ Peace, Prayers & Blessings...
I Elaine Packard took care of Pauline's mother Lela Ellis whom was one of my favorite ladies that I will never forget, I would always be there when Pauline came to visit Lela. Lela was always so excited for "Polly" to come visit. I loved their special bond they had. Pauline was always so thoughtful and sweet. Now she will reunite with her mother.
May God Bless
