Phylis lived an incredibly full life! She not only was a loving wife, a sister and excellent mother & grandmother, but she was a teacher, a caregiver, a confidant & an avid prayer warrior for so many. To know Phylis was to really know love. She spent years volunteering in the Sooner Saddlers, she shared God's word throughout her life from being a Youth Leader, to ministering in nursing homes & hospitals, street ministry, weddings, funerals, that phone call where you needed urgent prayer in the middle of the night! Phylis really was a light in this world and if you knew her, you knew that. She loved and prayed over ALL her friends & family all the time. Her life was a full, rich & beautiful life and she is now celebrating with our Heavenly Father!
