

Ponce De'Leon Jackson Jr.

January 5, 1954 - December 27, 2024

In Loving Memory of Ponce Deleon Jackson Jr - AKA- (Boogie/Bookie)

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Ponce Deleon Jackson Jr, affectionately known as Boogie or Bookie, who left us on December 27th 2024. He was a devoted father, grandfather, and friend, whose life was a testament to the values of family, unity, and hard work.

Born to Leon Jackson and Percy Lee Jackson, Ponce carried on a legacy that began with his grandfather, Apostle Deleon Jackson also known as BlackJack. Throughout his life, he exemplified the importance of working together for the greater good of the family, and making things happen in the face of adversity, instilling these values in all who knew him. His unwavering commitment to his family was evident in every action he took and every story he shared.

Ponce was more than just a name; he was a guiding light for his family and friends. He believed in the power of togetherness, always encouraging those around him to support one another. His laughter and warmth brought joy to gatherings, making every moment spent with him a cherished memory.

As we reflect on Ponce's life, we remember his deep love for his family and the countless lessons he taught us. His legacy will continue to live on in the hearts of those he touched, reminding us to embrace our loved ones and work together for a brighter future.

Ponce is survived by his loving family, including his children, Nathaniel Leon, Joshua Lee, Erika Deon, Jeremy Deleon Jackson, his many grandkids, nephews, cousins and sisters will carry forward his teachings and values. He will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

A celebration of his life will be held at Stumpff Funeral Home on Saturday January 11th at 2 pm. All who knew him are welcome to join us in honoring a remarkable man whose spirit will forever live on in our hearts forever.

Rest in peace, Ponce Deleon Jackson Jr. Your legacy will continue, and you will forever be honored.
