“ We had lots of fun but one time we was about 6 and a big black snake started chasing us it was as tall as us standing up and chasing us we was screaming and running for shelter of his house and im still scared of snakes thanks to that day. We stayed pretty close as kids he was so much fun and i loved him so much he was the best cousin 💖 he went through alot as a kid with his health but he never let it bring him down he never lost his humor . He will be missed but i know we will see him again in heaven.
