“ I worked with Mona at the Court House for several years. She always treated me with respect and kindness. She was always the same regardless of how people treated her. She was a very special lady whom I will always remember as one of the most kind, loving and beautiful people I have ever known. I still have a black kitty cat that she gave to me long ago as a kitten whom I love very much. Rest in peace my friend. You put up a courageous fight.
