

Randy Odell Standridge

August 29, 1988 - April 4, 2018

Randy Odell Standridge, 29, of Bartlesville, Oklahoma went to be with his Lord on April 4, 2018.

Randy was born August 29, 1988 in Claremore, Oklahoma to Ricky Lee Standridge and Melissa Kaye (Notah) Standridge.

Randy graduated from Bartlesville High School in 2008 and obtained a Bachelor's of Arts from Central Bible College in Springfield, Missouri in 2014.

Randy married Meagan Morris on April 26, 2014 and they made their home in Bartlesville.

Randy will be remembered for his love of faith, family, and friends. If you spoke with Randy once, he considered you a friend. If he didn't know someone in the room, you could bet he would before he left. Without failure he would run into somebody he knew on every vacation and date night he had with his wife. He grew up attending what is now Spirit Church and continued into adulthood at Barnsdall Assembly of God. Randy never outgrew his sense of wonder, hope, and search for knowledge. He gave with passion and was always willing to offer a helpful, loving hand and warm support. Randy listened with gentle understanding, empathy, and a spirit that was, and still is, the embodiment of compassion and love. He was a tenacious servant of others, always looking for ways he could help. His caring words and kind acts developed into countless treasured and unwavering friendships. In his loss we share our deepest sorrow and strongest love with all of our family and friends.

Randy is survived by his wife, Meagan, his father, Ricky Standridge, his mother, Melissa Standridge, sisters: Robin Kinion Woolsey, LaRonda Johnson Baker, brothers: John Hailey, Jessie Standridge, Billy Hailey, Roger Standridge, and Ricky Standridge, his grandmother, Mary Lou Standridge, his uncles: Roger, Phil, and Randy Standridge and aunt Julia Hailey along with many other nieces, nephews and cousins.

“ i remember once when you were just a few months passed two years old.....we all had went to walmart to go christmas shopping....and i placed you in a shopping cart....you see....you were born when i was 11 and i spent sooooo much time with you.....more so than i ever did with Lil Rog or Lil Rick.....so there was always a strong bond twixt you and i....that can never be broken....not even in death.....as i was saying....i whisked you off in the shopping cart whilst everyone else took to their own direction to shop at their leisure....i took you to the section that had all the video games....this was in the old walmart mind you....not the super walmart....i found a display that would allow me to play tetris on the nintendo game boy....so...i turned my back to you and began to play....after 10 minutes or thereabouts....i remember you kept calling for "help....help"....but i kept on playing.....the last time you said "help".....i distinctly remember hearing something different in your voice.....maybe a certain fear....so i turned around to see your fingers barely clinging onto a shelf...with your feet barely hooked to the cart that was slowly inching backwards....and you were stretched out to the max.....two more seconds and you would have fell smack near on four feet straight to your face.....i immediately scooped you into my arms and holding you tight in my chest i swung you back and forth saying..."im sooooo sorry Randy.....im so sorry.....i will never fail to be there when you need me again"....when you were in your mid teens with a drivers license i always told you that no matter what time of day or night....if you ever found yourself in a situation or bit off more than you could chew.....to call me....and i would be there in ten minutes...(i will share a story about that next time).....i am so sorry Randy.....i am so sorry....that i got so lost in life and that i always wandered so far.....i am sorry that i never lived up to the promise that i made to you when you were a baby.....i owed you more than that as your oldest brother....and you deserved much better.....i love you Randy O'dell.....you are always on my mind.....

“ Randy was my brother. More important than that is he was a follower of Jesus. He had a servant’s heart. He was someone you could count to help with just about anything. He was kind soul that put other people’s needs before his own. He was someone who inspired you to be the best version of yourself.

“ You are loved more than words could ever express. You have always held a cherished spot in my heart that no amount of time, space, or distance could ever take away. You will always have a candle burning in your memory inside of my soul little brother. I miss you so much already. Thank you for all the memories, there is so much more that I wish I would have told you while you were here. We will meet again....but not yet....not yet...

“ It was my honor to join Randy's family when I married his dad in July of 2017. Little did I realize, what a wonderful group of people of which I had become a part. Randy touched my heart in so many ways! What a sweet, friendly, compassionate and loving young man he was. I will greatly miss his phone calls and texts. He is in Heaven with His Savior. And, I will see him again when I get there.

“ I only got to meet Randy a short time ago but our meeting was a true blessing. I got to know Randy very quickly and really enjoyed the phone calls he made to me. Randy is one of the most true people I have ever met. He loved sharing his love for God. He will be sorely missed but I know he is in Heaven.
