No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, [a] neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

“ You were only 8 years when you came into our lives. A lovely little orphan boy. We chose you and your sister to be ours and part of our family. I remember when you accepted Jesus as your Lord and Savior. You loved going to children’s church and Bible Blast. Family time and all the trips we took and seeing you playing in the ocean for the first time are precious memories for me. We loved you inspite of your challenges and never stopped loving you. I as your mother never stopped praying for you. You are missed and we know we will see you in Heaven.
