

Raymond L. Javine

November 10, 1926 - April 4, 2014

Mr. Raymond L. Javine

Mr. Raymond L. Javine, 87, died at 8:51 P.M. Friday, April 4, 2014 at the Barnsdall Nursing Home.

Funeral services for Mr. Javine will be held at 11 A.M. on Tuesday, April 6, 2014 in the Stumpff Barnsdall Funeral Chapel with Mr. James Hager of Pawhuska officiating. Interment will be in the Javine Cemetery north of Barnsdall directed by the Stumpff Barnsdall Funeral Home.

Friends who wish may call for visitation at the Stumpff Barnsdall Funeral Home from 1 P.M. until 8 P.M. on Monday.

Mr. Javine was born in Barnsdall on November 10, 1926 to John T. and Grace A. (Frazier) Javine. He grew up and received his education in Barnsdall and graduated from Barnsdall High School in 1945. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II in the Medical Corps and as a lifelong "Sooner" fan he then attended the University of Oklahoma as well as Northeastern State College at Tahlequah. He was married to Jessie L. Buck in 1947 at the First Methodist Church in Barnsdall. They made their home primarily in Pawhuska. Mr. Javine was employed as a medical technologist at the Pawhuska Hospital from 1949 until his retirement in 1982. After his marriage ended, he made his home in Tulsa and Oklahoma City until recently returning to Barnsdall. Mr. Javine liked gardening, stamp collecting and camping, although his greatest passion was the movies which he learned to love while he was a projectionist at the Barnsdall Theatre while in high school.

Mr. Javine is survived by two sons, Michael R. Javine of Pawhuska and J. Scott Javine of Burbank, California.
