“ Memories of Raymond during and after the mid fifties will never be forgotten. He was thoughtful and always loved to make people laugh.... as he laughed with them (or maybe at them). Either way, he was funny and a joy to be around. My condolences to the family during this difficult time.

“ I remember Ray as Terry’s cool dad when we were kids. The last time I saw him was the first time in three decades. He was so excited I was there and it lifted my heart to this day. My condolences to all the family.
