“ She was my partner in crime in helping me score a date with the wonderful man I have now. I owe it all to her. I was working with her at T-birds and he came walking in and I was hooked! She was at the cash register and I was behind him, telling her with hand signals to ask questions. Thanks to her, I found out all I needed to know to find him. I will forever be thankful for her willingness and humor to help me out. She will be missed. Prayers to the family!

“ One spring day, we had got in trouble for something and our boss made us go to the barn to clean the units ! Well while at the barn we were dispatched to a crash a significant crash. I believe Cheryl powers or maybe Terri was with us! Anyway we had sent Becki back to the unit to grab a few things we needed! We all looked up and Becki was no where to be found ! We asked a deputy to look in the truck nope. After a few minutes (mind you the Johnson grass in this bar ditch was fairly tall) up pops Becki out of the bar ditch laughing and screaming it's okay guys I am okay and I got it! She had lost her footing and was lost in the bar ditch! In that moment of significant work she still managed to give us all a laugh in the chaos! I could go on and on about stories of all of us but she truly was mom, gma, and definitely was a little territorial of her bunch and was not afraid to tell anyone! Above all I know she loved her family as well! Her and that darn silver car came more times to town “hot” than you can count! She never quit showing up!
