“ I remember Becky and Janet as two of my sister's best friends in high school. The three of them were always up to some mischievous activity that usually landed one of them in trouble. At times it was amusing and sometimes even annoying. I look back on those memories with fondness. I am sorry God took Becky far too soon. But, I am sure that Becky and Pam are planning their next scheme up in heaven right now.

“ Two of my most vivid memories of my cousin Beck are of how much she laughed. She took life as it came and just laughed at it. The other one I didn't laugh about until we were much older. I still laugh and shake my head remembering the time she pierced all of us girls ears even though she was younger than several of us. The old fashioned way....by numbing our ear lobes with clothes pins and ice and then using a needle. And Becky threatened if we cried she would quit whether she was finished or not! No matter how bad it hurt not one of us cried. At least not until we were finished and out of her sight. Lol ❤️

“ *Becky was one of my classmates at Dewey High School. We became best friends in third grade. She was one of the first friends that I got to go to her house and play! That was always special to me and even though our lives went different ways I always cherished Becky and I 's friendship. After graduation I never really saw Becky but always loved her and remembered her as being part of my growing up in Dewey! Praying for all of her family and know she was loved. “ I am deeply saddened to hear about Becky. Sweetest lady. Becky did my hair years ag before I moved away in '91. She was great at her craft. I will miss her as my friend on Facebook. So thankful I knew her and had a chance to reconnect. My prayers to her family. I'm sure she is riding Hooch again. She loved horses. I never had a chance to see her in person after I moved back to Oklahoma, I regret that. Life is precious. God bless.
