

Robert Cameron Coyle

January 10, 1946 - April 29, 2022

Robert "Bob" Cameron Coyle, 76, of Bartlesville, OK, passed away on April 29, 2022, after succumbing to COPD. Bob was born on January 10, 1946, to Cameron and Geraldine (Mann) Coyle in Pasadena California. After leaving high school in 1963, he joined the Navy as a coxswain on a troop transport. He was immensely proud of his service and often spoke of his experiences, especially about watching dolphins from the bow of the ship. After being discharged in 1966, he held various jobs in the Los Angeles area, including owning an A&W restaurant.

In 1979, Bob moved to Tulsa, OK and took a class in cabinet making and woodworking, pursuing this hobby late into life. He spent a number of years as an OTR truck driver. In 1994, he met Brenda "Brandy" Reeder, and they wed in 1996. They enjoyed time riding their Harleys, going to swap meets and renaissance fairs.

After going on disability, Bob spent his time watching too many war documentaries and way too much NCIS. Later in life, he and his wife traveled the western US, frequenting the West Coast. Bob was predeceased by his mother and father, Cameron and Geraldine Coyle, and his half-brother Ray Buzard.

He is survived by his wife, Brenda Coyle, his half-brother, Kenneth Buzard, his children Dawna Coyle and Sean Stonecipher, his bonus son Jeremiah Thennis, his grandchildren Alana Woldstad, Jared Martin, Katie Johnston and her husband Chris, and his great-grandchildren, Kyana, Pride, Rayne, Cherish, Camdyn, Kaleena, Zaiden and Rowan.
