“ sorry i have to write again. i just watched the pic slide show and it brought back so many wonderful memories. I seen a pic of him in the gun shop with his magnifying glass hood on. That made me think of the time he told me that maryline was giving him a hard time for bringing that mag. hood to a restaurant...He said it helped him read the menu. I cracked up at that story...Oh how i miss him. Writing this is making me think back on so many great times i had spent just hanging out in his gun shop talking. He left a unique lasting impression on my heart. So kind and caring. no matter how long i stayed and continued to pick his brain and ask him questions, he never once got impatient with me. A Man of great Character...Thank You Bob for all of your time you gave to me and Thank you for being such a great person. Chris Smith

“ Connie,
I am so sorry to hear about your daddy. I know how very much you loved him. A very difficult time - heart will hurt; mine still hurts for my mom! BUT God gives His children the grace and comfort to walk through these times. He is El Shaddai - The All-Sufficient One and El Roi - The God Who Sees. His children are never out of His sight. I love you.

“ Bob Jourdan was the only grandpa I ever knew growing up. I'm going to miss his smiles, laughter, and quick wits. I never met a man that seemed to know exactly what to say and when to say it like he did. Heaven added a good one on September 17. RIP Bob Jourdan.
