ROBIN MITCHELL BLACK

Robin Mitchell Black, 57, resident of Bartlesville, passed away in his home, Tuesday, July 19 after a courageous battle with cancer.

Memorial services will be held at 5:00 PM on Thursday at Life Church in Bartlesville. Cremation arrangements are under the direction of Stumpff Funeral Home and Crematory.

A memorial has been established and those who wish to make a contribution in memory of Robin may do so to; Robin Black Memorial Fund C/O Chantel Gray at Arvest Bank, PO Box 999, Bartlesville, Oklahoma 74005.

Robin Mitchell Black was born November 19, 1953 at Henryetta, Oklahoma to Lawrence Herschel and Laura Jean (Fraser) Black. He was raised and received his education in Lone Oak, Texas. Robin served in the U.S Army from 1972 to 1975. Robin and Rhonda were united in marriage in Bartlesville, Oklahoma in 1981. In 1983, Robin began his career at United Linen, serving in numerous capacities. He loved his job, coworkers and the integrity surrounding him in his workplace. His family was his first priority. He took an active role in numerous activities like coaching softball and baseball, golfing and choir fundraisers. In his spare time, he regularly attended American Legion baseball and Oklahoma Wesleyan Basketball games, as well as spent time with the love of his life, granddaughter Gabrielle Burke. If family, sports and work didn't keep him busy enough, he could always find a new carpentry project around the house that needed to be completed. He was known by many to be faithful, loyal, humorous, hardworking and compassionate.

Survivors include; his wife Rhonda J. Black of the family home in Bartlesville; one son, Heath W. Black and wife Sallie; one daughter, Courtney Burke and her husband Ryan; his parents, Lawrence Herschel Black and his wife Laura Jean; two brothers, Lynn and Glynn Black; one sister, Christie Sponsel; one granddaughter, Gabrielle Burke; his mother-in-law Bonita Hedge and several nieces and nephews.
