“ Ronald Baecker was my cousin whom I first remember from the late 1950s. He was friendly and good-natured then and that stayed with him throughout his life. I last saw him on 24 October 2019 at a Baecker family get-together to remember Leta Miller, nee Baecker, his aunt and my mother. I am sure that he will be much missed by his family and friends.

“ You could describe Ron in two words: “Always” and “Never”. Ron was always happy and Ron was never unfriendly. No matter what day it was or what was going on, he always met it with a smile and a positive mindset. His light never dimmed, and may it always stay bright in the memories of all who knew and loved him.

“ Bubba and I became friends while I was scheduling refined products for Conoco and he was doing the same for Phillips66. After the two companies merged, we worked along side for a couple of years and also attended industry events together numerous times over the years. Ron was a fun kind of guy, an all around good man, and will be missed by all who knew him. R.I.P. Bubba.

“ I am not sure where to begin..Ron was always there for any of us who needed help or rescued. I remember one morning the spring on my garage door broke..yep I called Bubba and he was there in 15 minutes and got me to work. Everyone in our social group has stories to tell how Ron was always there to assist them. Ron (Bubba) will be missed but God really gave him the heart of a servant. My prayers are with Sharon and his family. Thank you Ron for being a friend, you will never be forgotten.

“ Ron was known as big brother to the ladies in our social club. We have many memories. Ron always welcomed us to his home for dinners and super bowl Sundays. He was always a joy to be around and would do anything to help anybody. He will be truly missed.
