“ I remember Roscoe from Hangar 6. He was always fun to be around, a good conversationalist with a great sense of humor.

I'm so sorry that I'm unable to be there tomorrow In B'ville for Roscoe's funeral.

I'll never forget the 17 years we were together working in the aviation department of Phillips. Definitely some of the great and best years of my life, - and it was because of friends like Roscoe!!!

What a great soul Roscoe was!!!!

Roscoe once told me, - we might have been related through our Nowata families! I never checked it out, but I do know he was my "true Brother"!!!

The last time I talked with Roscoe was a few months back when he went into Hospice care! Even though Roscoe was facing Death's door, he was the same old Friend to talk too!!!

My Love goes out to Roscoe's family and friends!!! He will be missed dearly!!!
