“ I have many good memories of my sister Rosemary. She told me just the other day that she has fond memories of when she was little and would follow her older brothers around. We always enjoyed her presence. She had a sweet spirit about her. My heart and prayers go out to her children and grandchildren.

“ Rosemary and I first met about 1951 in Bartlesville and became close friends. She was a wonderful person. After she married Wayner and moved out on the ranch, we enjoyed fun times there also . My sympathy goes to her family.
