“ Roy had a beautiful Daughter Vicki Putnam McGowan. He loved her very much. The love of his life was Jean Putnam who passed away in 2011. They were married for over 25 years! They widow Putnam married to him less than 2 years. More of a companion.

Mrs. Frahm apparently took care of many bank's businesses, she remarried immediately after my father adopted her 50 year old children and died. Shirley was sleeping in my mother's bed when she immediately remarried upon Rudy's death. No rumor, just fact, she slept with whomever was available for giving an inheritance.

Her daughter rolled over in bed and stated " you know I am going to get your inheritance" Sandy did get that, her mother made sure.

Shirley remains sleeping in my mother's bed, literally, Anne Frahm thought Ms. Moodey was a Saint. Yes, Ms. Moodey is definitely a Saint.

“ I had the privilege of knowing Roy for a time in the last several years. I always enjoyed visiting with him and discussing the oil field with him as my husband is also in the oil business. I will miss visiting with him and listening to his stories. May God bless his entire family in this sorrowful time.
