

Russell "Rusty" George Dodson

September 24, 1955 - November 1, 2022

Russell "Rusty" George Dodson, loving father and grandfather, passed away unexpectedly at his home in Bartlesville on November 1st, 2022.

Rusty was born in Muskogee, Oklahoma on September 24th, 1955, to George and Catherine (Scriba) Dodson. Alongside his sister Johanna and their younger brother John, he grew up in Bartlesville, a place he always called home.

Throughout his life, Rusty was a hard worker, a caring husband, and a loving father to his three sons, Steven, Matt, and Jordan. He owned and operated two successful businesses during the span of his career, Dodson Heating & Air, and United Commercial Contractors, from where he retired in 2020.

In his down time, Rusty enjoyed playing golf, and breaking any car he worked on, and flying. He was a man of few words and not one to wear his heart on his sleeve, but his heart nonetheless was a heart of solid gold. He would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it, or his very last dollar if you were hungry. He may not have always been perfect, but he was ours and he was so proud of the family he had.

Rusty is preceded in death by his parents, George and Catherine, and his brother John. He is survived by his three sons, Steven Dodson, Matthew Dodson his wife Jennifer and their children Eden and Rowan. Son Jordon Dodson; his child Jaxen; sister Johanna Britton and husband Brad; three nephews, Benjamin, Nathaniel, and Jonathan; former spouses Teri Bryant, Kathy Dodson, and Tami Dodson and a host of family and friends who will miss him dearly.

A rosary will be held Friday November 11, 2022, from 5:00PM to 6:00PM followed by a come and go celebration of life from 6:00PM to 8:00PM.
