“ Sam would come to Tulsa with Angie & patiently wait on Angie to get her hair done. Then they'd usually go to dinner somewhere afterwards. Nice guy, laid back & just right for Angie. Im sorry he went so soon. God bless your heart Angie & your entire family. Love, Elizabeth

“ Angie, Sam, Chris and Family,

Sam was a very good friend. I got to know Sam through scouting; we spend many nights camping with the boys. The most memorable was the scouting trip to Colorado. Sam enjoyed the white water rapids, horseback riding, hiking and the train ride, but we could not get him to go ziplining.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Angie, Sam and Chris,

Our thought and prayers go out to you and all of Sam's family. Our family enjoyed getting to know Sam through through scouting and Tony working with Sam. He was a great leader in all the things he pursued. I was honored to serve on various committees with him during our scouting experiences with all of our sons and how he strived to guide the boys into becoming better men.

He will be greatly missed! Prayers 🙏

“ I had the immense pleasure of not only being in the same group as Sam, but also working very closely with and sharing a pod during my time at P66. Every morning when I arrived to the office I could always count on a “mornin” greeting. Sam was a man of few words, but put up with so much of our crazy office antics with humor and kindness. I’m better off having known him. My prayers are with all his friends and family during this time of grief.

“ When I first started at Phillips 66, Sam was on my team working along side me. Where I was loud and outgoing, he was quiet and reserved. Where I was naïve and ambitious, he was seasoned and content. Although very different, we bonded over our sons' scouting journeys and our dry sense of humor.

Later, I had the joy of being Sam's supervisor. When my team was going through a lot of transition, he added stability. I got to challenge him to grow and was so proud to see him step up and take on new things. I could see his confidence growing because somebody believed in him. At the same time, he taught me to be content regardless of where I was on my career journey.

Perhaps his most famous quote...

"Everybody wants to be the CFO, but there's only one CFO."

In other words, its okay to be ambitious but learn to make the most of whatever role you are in. Learn to be content even if you never make it to where you strive to go.

Sam was pretty quiet, but when he did speak up everybody listened... you knew it was either going to be something important or something hilarious.

My thoughts and prayers go out to his family.

“ Sam was a treasured member of my Closing & Control team at Phillips 66. He was quiet and humble, steady and kind. I'm better for knowing him and so thankful our paths crossed.

He was a light for our team, even in the literal sense. As the earliest bird, he was always the one to flip on our lights and start the coffee maker. It makes me smile to remember the days that the lights weren't turned on because Sam was on vacation.

Not everyone knew just how funny he was, but that's one of the things I'll miss the most.

To Angie and the family-- Thank you for sharing Sam with us. We're sharing in your sorrow with love and friendship.
