“ Hey dad I've just been thinking about you a lot lately. I miss you so much it still hurts so bad. I love you dad so so so much! I know you and grandpa and grandma and all of our relatives are having a good time in heaven. They say time heals wounds but it doesn't seem like it to me. Still hurts just as much today as the day God called you home. I love you dad! ❤️❤️💕💕

“Dad, Sophia misses you so much! She asked me if she could draw pictures at the kitchen table and I told her she could as long as she didn't draw on herself. As she was drawing her picture I walked by the table and asked her if she enjoys drawing alot. She told me yes she does love drawing and then she said she was done drawing her picture. She looked up at me and said "mommy I drewed papa." It was so random and came out of nowhere, dad. She said "momma you miss papa" I said "yes baby I do miss papa a whole lot" and she said "I miss him too momma he was a good papa, he always shared his cookies with me." I just can't put into words just how much my heart is broken, dad. I miss you every minute of every day. I know you would want me to be strong and celebrate the life you lived and all of the great memories we all had together. But dad, I am broken. I love you dad and I miss you more than anyone will ever know. Anyway I just want you to know just how much this little girl misses you and just how much she loves you. I know you're around us and especially around Sophia and that does make me smile. We love you dad and not a minute will go by that we won't think of you and miss your amazing smile and your hilarious jokes. Tell grandpa and grandma we love them too.

“ I will always remember my brother playing his guitar. He loved making music making new songs. He always had something funny to tell you or had to make you laugh, Scott was a great brother I will miss him so much! I have comfort in that I know he's with our Mom and Dad playing his music for them now. It's Not gonna be the same brother cause now we have a empty space in our hearts with you not here with us. I miss you and love you forever! Play my favorite for Mom and Dad okay.

“ I remember as a child fishing with him and my little brother at our grandparents house. That day I had caught a big crappie fish and I remember my dad coming over to help me feel it in and he said it was the biggest crappie he had ever seen come out of that pond. He even was telling my mom about it just a few months ago. His laugh and jokes are what I miss the most. He always had a smile on his face. It hurts so bad that I'll never be able to hear his voice again. I know he is in heaven with my grandparents and I am happy about that. I am just so heart broken I won't be seeing him sit in his spot on the couch and hearing him play his guitar on Saturday's anymore. I miss him so much I loved him more than anything. He was the best dad. Dad I love you and I can't wait to be with you again. I love you so much! I hope he knew how much he meant to me. Love, your daughter Lauren
