“ She was such a wonderful teacher and roll model for our daughters. They loved her classes so much and it was obvious that she loved teaching. She influenced so many young people during her career. My heartfelt condolences go out to her family at this difficult time. Hold the memories close in your heart and she will always be with you. Linda Pryce

“ *Where goes the wind,
when its purpose is realized
and the traces of coolness remain on the cheek?*

*Or the sun,
when after setting, its warmth still radiates from the stonework?*

When their presence has departed, yet their effects still linger, can it be truly said they are gone?

*Soft,
into the night you went.*

*Yet, behind you remain
footsteps,
indelible in the terra firma.
Purpose,
etched as grooves in river-worn stone.*

The flame is snuffed, yet the glow of the wick still gently pierces the night.

And your memory as vapor I have encased in my heart.
