“ *Sid's wife, Linda has been our housekeeper for about 30 years and we got to know Sid through her comments. We could see that her husband, Sid was a very caring person. He enjoyed his family and especially his grandchildren, Sydney and Silas. He enjoyed his cycles and cars and many trips to Grand Lake. He felt deeply for his wife and helped her keep the best yard in their part of Bartlesville. We also appreciate his service to our country and know he will be missed by all the family and especially his caring wife, Linda.

“ My deepest sympathies to Linda and Kim. I was sorry to see where Sid has passed. Sid and I first met when we ran 2 forklifts into each other coming around a corner at NZ. That accident forged a friendship that lasted many many years. He and his family treated me like kin and we shared many a trip to the lakes of Oklahoma. We also shared many a motorcycle adventure. You lived life hard and fast my friend, and no better friend could a person of asked for. Rest easy Sid, (aka the Midget).

Again, my deepest sympathies to all of the family.
