Star Ryanne Hamshar, 23, of Claremore, Oklahoma, passed away on July 2, 2025, in Claremore, Oklahoma. She was born on March 30, 2002 in Claremore, Oklahoma to Ryan James and Sarah Cloud (Lawrence) Hamshar.

Star was a proud Cherokee Native of Claremore, Oklahoma. She graduated from Claremore High School in 2021, where she played the alto saxophone in the middle and high school band. And was known to practice with the Rogers State University Band in middle school as privilege by the music professor.

Star was tiny and passionate with a tender heart and was spirited and creative with an unforgettable smile. She had a desire to help everyone before herself.

She was a gifted musician and shared the love of the arts with her Momma and a love for old rock with her dad.

She loved butterflies, sloths, anime, archeology, genealogy, science, nature and often said, "I love my Grandma Mary more than anything in this world" to anyone who knew her.

Star is survived by her mother, Sarah (Lawrence) Hamshar; father, Ryan

Hamshar and wife, Renae; sister, Jaycie; and brother, Huxley of Claremore;
