“ I only met Stephanie once on the plane to Portland, Oregon. They ended up coming over for dinner and we have stayed in touch ever since. I am a little in shock as I guess I didn't pick up that she was so ill. Sending love and prayers to the family and her many friends.

“ Stephanie and Charlie are my next-door neighbors and I have always thought Stephanie was a wonderful neighbor and a good Christian. I think it is so wonderful that she was able to travel so many places with Charlie and sometimes their children and grandchildren. That was a great blessing. I will miss seeing Stephanie around the neighborhood.
