“ Steve was a good brother in Christ. He served faithfully as a deacon during our ministry in Cherryvale. He was very much like his dad, Sam, who, while he was often very quiet, you knew his waters ran deep. God bless the Barker family.

“ So sorry for the families loss. John was a very nice person and we always enjoyed visiting with him. He used to come visit us with his black lab riding in the back of his truck. We always commented how wonderful his dog was. And on his next visit he brought us a lab pup. We named him Ruben. John always had a gentle soul about him. He will be missed. Sending our prayers to all of his family..
