“Crash was my best friends husband. He was amazing to Mandy and to me and my kids. My kids loved him wholeheartedly and said he was their favorite uncle. He would take time to listen to our needs, our hurts, our good times. When the kids had a party, he was one who would be sure to come he loved deeply and his kind of love is one we can never replace. He will be extremely missed. Praying for peace and comfort for his beautiful wife and the rest of his family.

“From meeting him at a coworkers barbeque for the first time about 5 maybe 6 years ago his vibe was the most fun I've seen in this town, Crash from that point on when we passed each other or seen each other we always talked and had a good laugh about something. Then shortly there after I became a renter that he was my landlord and man I tell ya he was an awesome one to have and when me and my ex-wife had a falling out he was very understanding and compassionate and in that time he and I became even closer as friends we even enjoyed a Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner in that time as well, he always made me laugh and he was always fun for the most part to even be around in his presence, I'm gonna miss him greatly
