“ I will miss you Steve, I think back of the all the good times when we were growing up. I couldn't wait to come to Aunt Betty's and Uncle Roy's house and be with my cousins! We have so many good memories of back then. Playing in the creek, climbing rocks and working in the garden. I don't think we knew what shoes were back then. Ha! I was the only girl but you wouldn't have known it... I've always thought of you all as brothers not cousins and feel blessed to have had you in my life. This is not good bye we will meet again. Love you!!

“ Oh how I miss you. There are no words to describe the emptiness in my heart, but the memories I have will forever be in my heart. I've found myself calling your phone just to hear your voice once again. I know you're up there with loved ones with no pain which fills my heart with joy but nonetheless there's a void that only you can fill. I love you daddy, I'm not saying goodbye for I shall see you once again someday.

“ *His passing has left a missing part in my life. I'll forever cherish the times we've shared, laughed and most recently shared in tears. As God's proven word reveals that to be absent in the flesh is to be present with the Lord, so shall I hold to this promise in the full knowledge that we will once again reunite. I love you brother!
