

Susan Elaine Hayden

February 11, 1953 - February 1, 2023

Susan Elaine Fieldhouse Hayden 69 of Collinsville, OK passed away February 1, 2023, in Tulsa, OK. Susan was born on February 11, 1953, in Chesterfield England to George Fieldhouse & Eileen May Fieldhouse formerly Steven of Lincolnshire England. Susan was a very active child she loved sports & horseback riding. Susan graduated from school early and because of this she was not quite old enough to join the British Armed Forces, so she worked at a local grocery for a few years then joined the service and eventually made her way to the US. Susan would later marry and have a son in the spring of 1974. Eventually Susan would make her way to Wann, OK where she would reside for nearly 40 years. Susan would have many jobs throughout her life but none that she loved more than the one where she got to wear the title, Nana. Susan wholeheartedly entered her granddaughter's world whether by following her to rodeos, shopping for clothes, makeup, going to school functions. No matter the occasion Nana was there to support her, Laray was immensely blessed by her presence. Susan is preceded in death by her son Gene Ray Taylor, her parents Eileen & George Fieldhouse and sister Patricia Stevenson Fieldhouse and granddaughter Laura Taylor. Susan is survived by her granddaughter Laray Taylor of Nowata, OK, brother Tony Gray and wife Pam of Basegreen Sheffield England, nieces Maxine Brandt of Broken Arrow, OK, and Dianne Swaby of England and multiple great niece and nephews Danni Swaby, Emma Quincey, Evie Ray Swaby, Kirsten-Ann Gray and Marc Sufc Gray of England and Brendon Ellis of California.

Memorial Services will be held February 8th, 2023, at Stumpff Funeral Home & Crematory of Bartlesville, OK.

“ We were so blessed by Susan's creativity, energy, and generosity in our small town. She spent hours of her time and her own money to keep our community flower garden looking beautiful for several years. When she attended Wann Baptist Church, again she shared her talents to keep everything looking beautiful. She was a lovely lady with many gifts. I can only imagine how much she will be missed by her family and friends. ♡
