February 1, 1957 - January 26, 2023

Terry ROBERT Lee Blakey was born on February 1, 1957, to Gladys Phanetta Owens. He began life in Springfield, Missouri, and there he spent his early childhood.

At a young age, Terry moved to Nowata, Oklahoma with his mother. He attended Nowata Public Schools until his graduation in the class of 1975. While attending NHS he was a stand-out member of the Nowata Ironmen Football team and the best defensive player from Nowata, he also lettered in basketball. Shortly after high school, he joined the Military. Terry worked for REDA Pump in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and for many years at the Hudson Plant and Tyson Foods in Noel, Missouri. Among Terry's hobbies were hunting and fishing when he had the chance. One of Terry's finest attributes was his willingness to help anyone who asked for help. He was especially kind to the elderly in our community. During the last part of his life, Terry resided in Vinita, Oklahoma where he attended United Missionary Baptist Church. He made many memories and dear friends. He was often seen with Darrell Downing and members of Dues Paid Band. And up and down the highway with his work buddy Lucius Taylor.

Those left to cherish his memory are his children Reico Thompson (April) of Vinita, Oklahoma, Marietta Brown of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Markesha Hill of Nowata, Oklahoma, and Stella Thompson of Tulsa, Oklahoma, his grandchildren Dominic Lee of Pryor, Oklahoma, Isaiah Brown and Jeremiah

Brown of Tulsa, Oklahoma and Dayne Bowlin of Nowata, Oklahoma, and a host of nieces and nephews, and his dear friends Janice Allen and John Heathcock.

Preceding Terry in eternal paradise is his mother Gladys Smith, four sisters Margenetta Ware, Pamela Caliman, Resheall Caliman and Shelly Caliman and nephew Cameron Ware and his beloved pooch Toby.
