“ Aunt Thelma always had that delightful smile. I looked forward to the get togethers and see her right there by Uncle Virgil. So I have no doubt that she is right next to him now and for eternity. Going to miss you Aunt Thelma but in time we'll all have that ultimate get together.

“ Jean was a neighbor of mine when I first came to the Dewey area. We were expecting our 2nd child..and she would always say "by Christmas it will be over.." that always made me smile. Also when she would come over..she would get a glass of iced tea, and she MADE SURE i had a GLASS glass..not tupperware! oh the memories of her! she was like my second mom and i have very sweet memories of her! God bless her family..you lost a great one!
