

Theodore Xavior Seaman

October 29, 1932 - October 29, 2020

Theodore Xavior Seaman, 88, of Bartlesville, died on Thursday, October 29, 2020. He was born on October 29, 1932 in Trenton, New Jersey, to parents Walter Xavior Seaman and Mae Wilhelmina (Russell) Seaman.

Theodore served in the United States Army and reached the rank of Corporal. He was a 32nd degree Mason. Over the years he spent time working as a grief recovery counselor and worked for Memorial Park Cemetery and Speedy Squeegee.

As a father, he taught his children to always approach life with a positive attitude and a sense of humor. His “we can do anything” spirit has been the backbone to all who knew him and will inspire his family for generations to come. He is well known for his favorite saying, “Too blessed to be stressed”.

Theodore is preceded in death by his parents, Walter and Mae Seaman, sister Joy Rosten, son-in-law Dave Ragnow and his wife, Constance Seaman.

He is survived by his daughters, Cynthia Seaman of Coconut Grove, Florida, Tammie and husband Ben Cramer of Bartlesville, Gina Estes of Kansas City, Missouri, son Joe Estes and his wife Jasmine of Tulsa, brother Richard and wife Yuen Seaman of Las Vegas, Nevada, brother Bruce and wife Shirley Seaman, his grandchildren, Angela and Drew Kinney of Bartlesville, Chance Crawford of Bartlesville, Brittney Crawford of Bartlesville, Joseph, Jenner, Ella, Daisy and Seattle, his great-grandchildren, Payden, Caydie, Scarlette, Nathan, Sam, Lucas, and Riley all of Bartlesville, nieces and nephews Christopher Schaupp, Karoline Kitching, Suzanne Zampetti, Sherri

Birmingham, Shawna Blowe, and David Seaman and his great-nieces and great-nephews.

Private family services are under the direction of Stumpff Funeral Home and Crematory. Memorial donations in Theodore's memory can be made to Paws For Heroes and Hearts, P.O. Box 1395, Bartlesville, Oklahoma, 74005.
