“ The time that we spent together, was the best moments I've had in my life. I quickly fell in love with you. Who wouldn't? You made me so happy, and always made it a point to prioritize me and our and make sure that we all felt loved. I'm going to miss laughing like idiots in bed with you late at night over the stupidest things, I'm going to miss our fishing dates, I'm going to miss cuddling and watching our favorite tv shows and binging out on snacks together, I miss your kisses, and you making me laugh my butt off on our road trips. I will love you for the rest of my life Trey Morgan. I can't wait to see you again baby.

“ Oh man.

Where to even begin.

Let's just say that sometimes you just dont know what you have in life until it's gone.

While we had our differences, I never doubted your capacity to love our son.

The time I do remember together was full of laughs and deep conversations with relatable moments and special memories I carry with me to this day. Knowing you has made me the person I am today, and going through this has affected me profoundly. I cant front like we were all that close before you passed, but we tried our best to work together to do what was best for our son. You accepted my husband in our lives without question. You started taking the things that matter to me seriously. We were turning it all around.

Im still in shock and disbelief, I have no clue how to break this to our son. I pray for you to help me find the right way to break it to him, in a way he understands. It's going to be a long process. Shaun says he's going to be there for Ryan and he's not going anywhere. You had my back when it came down to the serious stuff at the end of the day even if I didn't fully appreciate that. Im so glad I let you keep him home from daycare to take him fishing. He talked about that for weeks. He said yesterday "I want to go to my daddy's house and play outside." My mom and Rodney are just trying to keep his mind occupied by playing with remote control trucks. He asked to go to Sonic and showed her a butterfly. I cant imagine doing this without you for real. He loves you man. He loves me, but youre his daddy, hes your mini me. I just cant believe this is happening. Lord please help me this is a long road. Amen RIP Trey Smith
