

Ty Riley Marvin

September 14, 1982 - March 1, 2022

Ty Riley Marvin, 39, of Bernice, Oklahoma died Tuesday, March 1, 2022. Ty was born September 14, 1982, to parents Tommy Marvin and the late Debra Lynn (McPherson) Marvin, in Gravette, Arkansas. He graduated from Gravette High School. After high school, Ty served our country in the United States Navy, and was honorably discharged.

Ty loved music and movies. He spent a lot of time writing song lyrics, playing his guitar and drawing. He worked summers on the family ranch and enjoyed helping train horses. As a boy, he was always sent to catch the ones that didn't want to be caught. He just had a way with them.

Ty was preceded in death by his mother, Debra Lynn Marvin and his grandmother, Patricia Marvin.

He is survived by his father, Tommy Marvin; stepmother Susan Marvin; son Brayden Orozco; sisters Ashlee Marvin and Kenli Marvin; brothers Derek Marvin and Tate Marvin; grandfather Thomas Marvin and grandparents Cliff and Wanda McPherson.

A celebration of Ty's life will be held on Friday, March 11 at 2pm at the Lighthouse Family Worship Center in Barnsdall, Oklahoma.

“ Ty Riley was the man who most mean aspired to be like. Stronger than most saw and yet just as much a teddy bear. Ty and I never got a chance to say our vows, but until the day I finally rejoin him.... I AM AND WILL FOREVER BE... HIS WIFE... I LOVED THAT MAN...

“ I didn't know ty on a personal level like most of y'all did, but the time I worked with him I got to know him pretty well. He never made work seem like work, he was always going on about funny jokes, or stories of him and his siblings growing up, or about his time in the navy. I always had a good laugh with ty around. Ty was the person where if you needed help he would go out of his way to help you. (Lol especially if it got him out of cleaning stalls) there are a lot of memories of him out at the ranch, and I know for a fact they will be remembered. Ty Riley Marvin, you will be missed.

“ Oh my gosh, I don't even know where to begin! Him and his friends were always messing with Ash and I. Couple memories, we'd be watching scary movies in her room and him and his friends would scare us somehow by either scratching at the window or bang on her bedroom window haha, or the night we went snipe hunting and Ash and I were running around with black trash bags and a tube a toothpaste...yeah don't ask, we thought it would work cause they (Ty and his buddies) said so.. Oh how I look back and think why did we believe them, haha! Or the time we saw a UFO and Ty was so scared hahaha he ran inside and momma deb came out and he was hiding behind her, a grown man hiding behind his momma! Lol lets see..the bonfires, the barn/apt parties, the late night drives, backroads, so so so many memories! Ty and I shared the same birthday which I always thought was neat! He had a big heart and would help in any way he could, he was funny and witty and goofy! I loved him like a brother because he was a brother to me, didn't treat me any different than he did his sister! I love you Ty Riley, watch over us in this crazy world we live!!
