Mrs. Morrison spent her life as a homemaker and mother; then later she took great joy in being a grandmother and finally a great-grandmother. "Mimi" is remembered by her children and grandchildren as a person who loved them unconditionally, was always there for them and continually encouraged them to reach their highest potential in whatever goals they pursued. Marie attended college at Northeastern State College in Tahlequah, Oklahoma. In 1942 in Oakland, California, she married her high school sweetheart Charles Russell Morrison. They were married for nearly 61 years. Although Mimi spent most of her time and energy in the home and on the farm with her husband, she also used her creative skills to help others. She was also remembered for her innovative birthday parties at their home. Several times the Sapulpa Herald came out to take pictures as the children celebrated a Peter Pan party, a circus party and many other creative events. She also worked at the Summer Day Camp Okiwanee She worked as a seamstress designing and making costumes for the Tulsa Junior Dance

Ballet during the 1960's and 1970's. Mrs. Morrison accepted Christ into her life as a teenager. She was baptized at Ardmore First United Methodist Church at the age of 80.
